

I am Accepted

Imitate Christ Activity Download

Instructions

What does it mean to have the attitude of Christ? In order to accept others, we must first realize we have been accepted. Then, once we embrace God's unconditional acceptance of our flaws, shortcomings and hang-ups, then we can grow to have the attitude of Christ.

1. Print the following page on card stock paper
2. Cut out each square and place in container
3. Have each girl pick a card
4. Propose the challenge:

Challenge each girl to live out what is on their card. You can have an open discussion so the girls can help each other brainstorm ways to do this.

Be HUMBLE -

Consider other better than yourself (vs. 3b)

Be a SERVANT -

Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit (vs. 7b)

Be OBEDIENT -

Seek God's will instead of
your own (vs. 8b)

Be CONSIDERATE

Look out for the interest of
others (vs. 4)

Be HUMBLE -

Consider other better than
yourself (vs. 3b)

Be a SERVANT -

Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit (vs. 7b)

Be OBEDIENT -

Seek God's will instead of
your own (vs. 8b)

Be CONSIDERATE

Look out for the interest of
others (vs. 4)